On 10 January 1951, the construction project on the Prenzlau (N 54/Q 04) airfield was to be continued on a larger scale. Reconstruction of partially destroyed garages north of the old Jewish cemetery was in progress. Excavations for a Volkspolizei residential block in Angermuender Strasse, south of the VP filling station, were completed. A row of houses in Bruessower Strasse near the airfield, was being reconstructed or reconditioned. The houses were to be occupied by VP dependents. [REDACTED]
